

SCOTTISH POLICE FEDERATION NORTHERN BRANCH

Central Committees

The Federation arrangements nationally mirror those at local level with Separate and Joint Central Committees (JCC).

Each of the eight Scottish Joint Branch Boards sends an elected JCC Representative (Strathclyde Police with around 50% of all Scottish Officers sends two Representatives per rank) and Northern JBB Representatives are;

Constables	David Ross
Sergeants	Hamish Grace
Inspectors	Ramsay Aitken.

The JCC elect four Office Bearers who, with the exception of the Vice Chairman, occupy full-time positions and work for the Scottish Police Federation's Head Office in Glasgow. The present post holders are;

Chairman	Les Gray, Strathclyde Police
Vice Chairman	Robert Milligan, Dumfries & Galloway Constabulary
General Secretary	Calum Steele, Northern Constabulary
Deputy General Secretary	Raymond Pratt, Strathclyde Police

The JCC elect from their number Representatives to the Police Negotiating Board, (PNB) the Police Advisory Board for Scotland, (PABS) the Board of Governors of the Scottish Police College, the Police (Scotland) Examinations Committee and the Management Committees of the National Police Fund, the Police Dependents' Trust, (PDT) the Police Treatment Centre and the St George's Fund for Orphans.

The JCC also operates a Welfare Standing Committee and Efficiency Standing Committee.
