

I was off on long term sick leave. Can I claim compensation for the public holidays, annual leave and rest days that I missed?

An officer on sick leave on a public holiday or rest day is not entitled to any compensation. You are only entitled to be compensated for any annual leave that you may have missed.